

SubSpace Navigation for Confluence

Introduction

SubSpace Navigation for Confluence, formerly known as SubSpace Plugin, is an easy-to-use and well-structured navigation in Confluence.

With the SubSpace Navigation you can:

- display several types of navigation elements: spaces, pages, blogposts, external links, folders and CQL query results
- dynamically display navigation elements using CQL queries
- personalize navigation elements based on metadata and user profile data

Documentation

Latest Releases

Release 3.x

- User's Guide \(v 3.0\)
 - Macro "Navigation" \(v 3.1\)
- Administrator's Guide \(v 3.0\)
 - Installation and Licensing \(v 3.0\)
 - Configure SubSpace Navigation \(v 3.0\)
 - Permissions and Visibility \(v 3.0\)
 - App Integrations \(v 3.0\)

Release Cloud

- User's Guide \(Cloud\)
 - Macro "Navigation" \(Cloud\)
- Administrator's Guide \(Cloud\)
 - Subscription and Licensing \(Cloud\)
 - Configure SubSpace Navigation \(Cloud\)
 - Permissions and Visibility \(Cloud\)

Sources

You can download the sources of the old Subspace Plugin for version 1.2 to version 2.2.2 under Sources.

Contact & Support

David Toussaint
Communardo
Software GmbH
0049 351 / 85033
293

Raise an issue

Evaluation & Purchase

Find our app on the Atlassian Marketplace:

Available on the Marketplace

Additional Links

- Find answers to Frequently Asked Questions